Katy B

Freak Like Me reaches summit

ANALYSIS

BY ALAN JONES

Crafted by Middlesbrough DJ Lee Walker, mixed by Chicago house veteran DJ Deeon, and topped off with a vocal from Katy B, Freak Like Me has had a gestation period of more than a year but moves decisively to the top of the Upfront club chart this week, with an unusually large (19.29%) lead over the new No.2, Bonnie Anderson's The One I Love. Freak Like Me is the introductory Upfront club chart entry for both Lee Walker and DJ Deeon, but Katy B has had several hits on the chart previously, and reached No.1 last October when she joined KDA and Tinie Tempah for the club and OCC chart topper, Turn The Music Louder (Rumble). Meanwhile, the Scandinavian alliance of Sweden's Alesso and Norwegian duo Nico & Vinz rules the Commercial Pop club chart, with their I Wanna Know collaboration rising 11 places to pip French veteran Martin Solveig's Do It Right, which advances 5-2. Although Nico & Vinz's single Am I Wrong spent a fortnight atop the OCC chart last July, it didn't dent the Commercial Pop chart at all, and I Wanna Know is their first entry on the list.
